

Publicity Permission Form- Expanded Media Coverage

From time-to-time opportunities arise for news, special interest or documentary type stories related to a student, group of students or school experience. When they do, student photos or videos may be used by the school district or media outlets. This may include student media interviews as part of the curriculum for workshops or courses in Portland Public Schools.

Portland Public Schools will only assist in these opportunities when we believe the story will focus on positive issues; however we cannot guarantee the outcome of any story.
